OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

— There was a fandango in the opera house Monday night.

— Thanks to friend Judkins for a chunk of nice maple sugar.

— The river is again rising rapidly. Big waters reported above.

— Brownville ought to have a marshal, don't you think so?

— New lot of Glass and Queensware at Seaman's. Call and examine new styles.

— Van Wyck is the name of a town in Knox county, called after our new Senator.

— The excess of exports over imports for the year ending April 30th was $259,000,000.

— A pamphlet—"Course of study of the Brownville High School"—will be issued from this office this week.

— Al. E. Ewan, of Sheridan, has accepted an invitation to deliver a Fourth of July address at Dresden, Otos county.

—"Business" became entirely too hot in Brownville Monday evening, and the saloons shut up before dark to let things cool off.

— Library rooms are open every Saturday. Miss Alice Judkins was librarian for the past month, and Miss Lizzie Shurts for June.

— Every member of the Temple of Honor is requested to be at the meeting next Monday Evening. Important and interesting business.

— E. H. Wilcox received a telegram from Plattsmouth to look out for the body of a boy drowned there last Saturday, 28th ult.

— Dr. L. M. Foster has finally located at Morrill, Kansas, instead of Hardin, as he first intended. He moved his family to Morrill this week.—Times.

— Brownville saloons are now selling liquor in violation of law, it is believed by many. We understand that proceedings will be taken at once to test the matter.

— The Democrats of the New York legislature have nominated John C. Jacobs and ex-Senator Kernan. Who the half-breeds will vote for is not yet made known.

— The Nemaha City Clipper baseball club respectfully invite any club wishing to engage in a game of art to be on their grounds Saturday of next week.—Times.

— Why was Gen. Funke turned out of the Lincoln postoffice? Because he was a German? He is certainly a true Republican, an influential one, and was an efficient P. M.

— Attendance at the Great Keokuk Mercantile College will run over two thousand students this season. Young men should address Prof. Miller, Keokuk, Iowa, for circulars and specimens.

— We hear considerable complaint that much seed corn has proven bad, failing to grow, and that cut worms are extremely destructive. One farmer informs us that he will have to replant a 40-acre field from the latter cause.

John C. McBride, editor of the Nebraska Farmer, has received the appointment of postmaster at Lincoln. It wasn't made, however, "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate," the appointment having been made after the Senate adjourned. We presume however that Mr. McBride will have no trouble in receiving confirmation, when the Senate meets again next winter.

— The Western World, Lincoln, compliments Miss Arnold and Miss Hitt, as follows:

Miss Arnold, of Brownville, Neb., who has been in Boston, for years studying music, has finished her musical education and returned home. She attended the session of the right worthy grand lodge at Topeka. Her singing was no small part of attraction of the session. Her singing was faultless and must be heard to be fully appreciated. Miss Hitt, also of Brownville, was an attendance. She is a most excellent alto singer.

ON THE OUTER WALLS.

Is Again the Proud Banner of the B. & O., and by Another Happy Stroke of Enterprise goes to the Front.

The Baltimore and Ohio having perfected all the details of the elaborate series of improvements it has been making of late, announces a change in its time schedule to go into effect on the 22d instant. Under this new schedule the time between Chicago and the East is greatly lessened. The afternoon fast line which formerly left at 4.05 now leaves at 5.15, arriving at New York at 8.40 the second morning. This is a solid train running through to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York without change of cars of any class whatever. The B. & O. is the only line offering this great advantage, as by other lines changes must be most apparent to those who have been forced to change cars at unreasonable hours of the night and in many ways been put to no little trouble in getting their families and baggage from one train to another. There is nothing of this on the B. & O. for if one so chooses the car that he takes in Chicago he may remain in until he reaches New York city. As all the eastern lines run trains leaving Chicago at 5.15, it is interesting to note that the B. & O. train leaving at that hour reaches Washington a whole night in advance of the 5.15 trains on competing roads—or in other words, those who leave Chicago for Washington via the B. & O. reach there the next evening, while by taking other lines they would not reach the National Capital until the second morning. The time from New York to Chicago is lessened an hour, the fast express being due at 7.30 instead of 8.30 as heretofore. There is no material change in the departure of the morning train for the East. The splendid accommodations offered on the New B. & O. Sleepers are certainly unexcelled in everything which tends to render such cars luxurious and convenient. In fact in many respects they are superior to any sleeping cars run anywhere. They are larger and finer in every way, and the conductors and porters are gentlemen in every sense of the word. The line of new Parlor Cars has just been placed upon the road and the cars are beauties indeed. In their construction they embrace many novelties, while in general effect they are matchless. The Dining Car Line in and out of Chicago has become very popular, the meals served are of the very best and the attendance is all the most fastidious could ask for. The Dining Halls on the entire line are now under the immediate management of the company and well deserve the popularity they have obtained as the best in the country.

A Losing Joke.

A prominent Physician of Pittsburg said jokingly to a lady patient who was complaining of her continued ill health and of her inability to leave her "try Hop Bitters." The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from which she obtained permanent health. She now laughs at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it, as it cost him a good patient.

— At the request of Mike Barada, of this city, we recently published an item charging Al. Cox, of Tecumseh, with having in effect robbed Barada's little daughter when she was taking passage on his hack from Tecumseh to Brownville. The gist of Barada's side of the matter is that by intimidation, rough language to his daughter, and abuse of her father, for not paying her fare, she, although knowing her fare had been paid, to save herself from further insults from Cox, gave him all the money she had, which was $2.20. It appears that when Miss Barada came through, Elder J. J. Henry, of the Christian church, was also a passenger on the hack, and Mr. Cox, not liking to rest under so serious a charge, has procured from Eld. Henry and published in the Torchlight, a statement regarding the matter which is as follows:

"I went on the hack, with Mr. Cox, on the day that Miss Mollie Barada was said to be robbed by the driver. Was with them during the whole time; heard every word spoken between them. The facts are as follows: I rode with the driver. Mollie rode behind on a seat to herself. Not one word passed between them, until we arrived at Mr. Otter's, where we changed hacks. Mollie asked the fare. Mr. Cox replied, "two dollars. You owe me for a former ride. Your father failed to pay it. It should have been paid a year ago. Your regular fare for the two rides would really be three dollars; but if you will pay me two dollars cash, I'll call it square. Your father has not acted the gentleman with me, but I don't blame you for it. I don't say this to hurt your feelings." Miss Barada then paid the two dollars, willingly. J. J. HENRY.

New Firm.

Leon and Milt. Jones, under the firm name of Jones Bros., having purchased the meat market of Bath & Body, would respectfully invite the public to call and see them. Jones Bros. claim to understand their business, and will not only keep all kinds of meats that can be had in this market, but deal it out in choice parcels, tastefully cut, to suit purchasers. Remember the place—old stand of Body Bros.

Women Never Think!

If the crabbled old bachelor who uttered this sentiment could but witness the intense thought, deep study and thorough investigation of women in determining the best medicines to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity and wisdom in selecting Hop Bitters as the best, and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perpetual health, at a mere nominal expense, he would be forced to acknowledge that such sentiments are baseless and false.

Legal Notice.

In the District Court of Nemaha County, State of Nebraska.
Hiram O. Minick, administrator of the estate of Jacob Dustin, Deceased, vs.
Eliza A. Grinnell and the unknown heirs of Jacob Dustin, Deceased.

Order to show cause.
It appearing from the petition in the above entitled cause that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of said administrator to pay the debts outstanding against the deceased and the expenses of administration and that it is necessary to sell real estate for the payment thereof.

It is hereby ordered that notice be given by publication in the NEBRASKA ADVERTISER as required by law in such case, that all persons interested in said estate appear before the Judge of the Second Judicial District of Nebraska, sitting at chambers at the Academy of Music in the City of Lincoln, Lancaster County, Nebraska, on the 25th day of June, 1881, at 3 o'clock P. M., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said Administrator to sell so much of the real estate of said deceased as is described in the petition as shall be necessary to pay such debts.
S. B. FOUNS, Judge.
